Man. We all know and love Badr Hari's entrance theme, which is performed by Dutch rapper APPA, but it looks like the two of them have collaborated yet again, this time on a song called "KAMPIOEN" or "Champion" in English. Of course we all know of Badr's recent troubles with the law, but he seems to be training regularly now and has a fight coming up with Zabit Samedov that we are all looking forward to, so check out this new song. Hell, it even features Joeren Post at the beginning of it calling out Badr Hari's name. [
