Nathan Corbett Gets Quick KO Win at Total Carnage 3

Total Carnage 3 took place yesterday once again in Gold Coast, Australia with Nathan "Carnage" Corbett in the main event, taking on Poland's Kamil Sokolowski.

The fight was almost over before it even started, and was all Corbett. Just seconds into the fight, Sokolowski came at Corbett with punches but got countered with a few knees and then got dropped with a right elbow. Sokolowski couldn't get up and the fight was over just like that.

Also on the card was Michael "Tomahawk" Thompson, who fought another Polish fighter, Tomasz Makowski. The fight was heating up nicely in the first round before Makowski seemed to have broken his leg and was unable to continue, giving Thompson the TKO win. (Video)
