The fine folks at MiddleEasy and Artlete are running a charity drive for victims in NY, specifically the CROM Gym which was decimated by the hurricane a few weeks ago. So if you haven't helped out yet and would like to, you still have a day to get your order in for a limited edition Artlete T-shirt with MiddleEasy branding on it, and it is a pretty awesome shirt. So head over to MiddleEasy and check it out.
