This Friday night live on AXS TV Lion Fight 8 will air at 10:00PM Eastern time/7:00PM Pacific time with a top-to-bottom stacked card. This card will feature a lot of great American talents like Tiffany Van Soest, Kevin Ross and Gregory Choplin will take on the legendary Yodsanklai Fairtex, who is making his American debut. That's right, Yodsanklai Fairtex, a name that just about any fan of Muay Thai and Kickboxing knows very well is finally in America and he is ready to throw down.

Lion Fight just released this video from Yod's open workout and interview and he sure looks ready to throw down tomorrow night.

"I feel great about fighting in the U.S., everything about this fight is good," he continues. "Choplin is taller than me but it's no problem. I can get in there and finish the job. I'm looking for the knockout."
