GLORY 7 Milan has come and gone now, with the event drawing 10,000 fans and coming across like a major success. Sometimes it is good to reflect on how much we've seen GLORY grow, even in the last few months. They've really pulled it all together and the quality, production values and matchmaking have really been ramped up to the current state, where longtime fans of K-1 and Kickboxing are really feeling at home with these GLORY events.

Check out this video released by GLORY that focuses on the behind the scenes stuff of GLORY 7 Milan, which includes getting to see some fake fighting and more.
