Sometimes the fact that LiverKick is a small organization can be felt, like when I get the flu right before a big event and it compromises how quickly I can get stuff up. Such is life, right? Seriously, LiverKick is a small operation. Anyway. GLORY just recently put up the GLORY 10 weigh-in video on their website, so while we have approximately two hours until showtime you might as well check out the GLORY 10 weigh-ins and get all pumped up for the Middleweight tournament!
